

VISION STATEMENT

I was lost in the desert, so I built a shade.

I craved knowledge, so I learned to listen.

I was living in gray, so I brightened the colors.

I wanted to teach, so I become a student.

I heard my song, so I found my voice.

I desired to conquer, so I learned how to share.

I yearned to grow, so I discovered my roots.

I needed to love, so I decided to help.

I wanted a change, so I spoke to the times.

I needed to heal, so I found my breath.

I decided to create, so I erased all borders.

I wanted to laugh, so I learned to dance.

I hungered for adventure, so I rode an elephant.

I aspired to fly, so I made wings.

This is Saïah

I am Saïah.
